Precautions for Course Registration

1. All courses from the Liberal Arts and Sciences Class Timetable – Table B have a Registration code; that is, a seven-digit number starting from 00. These codes are extremely important as far as course registration is concerned. Please be extremely careful with the codes when filling in the registration sheet.
2. Course details such as instructor, semester, day, period, and classroom may change without prior notice. Accordingly, you should regularly check the notice board at the Liberal Arts and Sciences Main Building. Classrooms for open courses will be posted on the notice board at the Liberal Arts and Sciences Main Building before each semester begins.
3. As any changes in course instructor and other related matters could result in a syllabus change, you are advised to confirm the latest information online (<http://www.ilas.nagoya-u.ac.jp/en/index.html>). For the course registration, you should make sure that your information is fully up to date.
4. The number of credits required by your school for advancement and graduation may be changed depending on the year of your enrolment. You are advised, therefore, to fully read the course conditions and procedures described in the Liberal Arts and Sciences Course Registration Guide.
